

DECISIONS OF VALUE

BASIS

FOR DECISION-MAKING

38%
EXPERIENCE

10%
INSTINCT

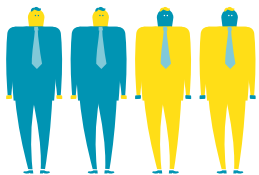

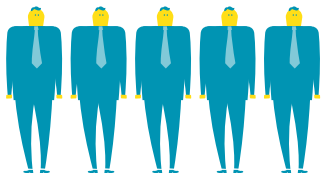

has more than some influence on their decision-making

DATA & INFORMATION has more than some influence on my decision-making.

52% BOARD OR SERVICE LEVEL STAFF

38% FRONTLINE STAFF

Of ward and clinical staff...

3 IN 10

do not feel comfortable with the reliability of the data.

THE DECISION MAKING ENVIRONMENT

84%

feel they are making decisions in a busy, distracting environment.

57%

feel they are making some of their decisions while feeling stressed.

59%

feel they are making some of their decisions while physically tired.

Find informal support of colleagues within their organisation useful.

95%

Find informal support of peers across the system useful.

82%

INVOLVEMENT

IN DECISION-MAKING

11%

of clinical staff feel fully involved in financial decisions affecting the whole organisation.

36%

of non-clinical staff feel fully involved in clinical decisions affecting the whole organisation.

54%

of NHS leaders think greater engagement with patients and the public is very important for achieving change.*

All the data in this infographic is taken from the Decisions of Value national survey. In total, 285 people from within the NHS responded to the national survey.

Find out more at www.nhsconfed.org

ACADEMY OF MEDICAL ROYAL COLLEGES

NHS CONFEDERATION

